

Sexual Assault Investigators' Association of Ontario (SAIAO)

Present a four-day conference for officers and civilian police members investigating/managing sexual assault occurrences

November 12 to 15, 2019

Embassy Suites Hotel Niagara Falls

Speakers include:

Commonwealth v. William H. Cosby; survivor/advocate Andrea Constand and prosecutors Kristin M. Gibbons-Feden and Stewart Ryan

Zach Miller, survivor of convicted pedophile Peter Whitmore, and the investigators/advocates who supported him
RCMP Sergeant Tim Schwartz

Lindsay Lobb, Policing Relations Liaison at the Canadian Centre for Child Protection (CP3)

In addition, discussion topics will include case reviews, Crowns and doctors involved in the investigation of sexual offences

Limited seating available

Registration opening soon, $400 or $350 earlybird (first 75 registrants only)

No refunds once registered

Hotel $125 per night plus $25/day parking and applicable taxes

For any further information please contact Detective Laurie Perks at 1255@yrp.ca or 1-866-876-5423, ext. 6985

I would recommend this conference to all that I work with and think that it is helpful to officers of all experience levels.

COMMENTS FROM LAST YEAR'S EVENT

One of the best conferences I have attended. Great presenters.

Speakers and topics all excellent! I loved this conference.

Excellent conference, great venue.

Great networking opportunity and continuous learning.

High caliber presenters and great subject matter.

REGISTRATION NOW OPEN