Tech Driven Community Safety

4th Annual cocpa Conference
October 3rd, 2024

This conference is our 4th annual conference.
We are focusing on Tech Driven Community Safety.

Location: Stonehaven Banquet Hall - YRPA Building ~ 63 Eric T. Smith Way, Aurora, Ontario

Registration Link: (Cut & Paste below)

https://www.yrp.ca/cocpa2024

Registration Options:

- In person cocpa Conference Registration - $65.00
  This price includes your lunch and snacks on breaks and your swag bag

- Virtual cocpa Conference access - within 200 kms of York Region - $40.00

- Virtual cocpa Conference access - greater than 200 kms from York Region - $20.00

- Expo Booth - $100.00   Contact Cyndy Skillins for more details at cocpa_ont@yahoo.ca

Speakers: Many areas are impacted by advancing Tech. Our presenters will share some of the good, the bad, & the unknowns of what might be ahead for us all.

Nick Ibbott from LEADS will explore the exciting world of generative AI in law enforcement and crime.

IPC - Stephen McCammon & Jesse Campbell will explore Policing, Privacy & Public trust.

Tara Ryan from Niagara RP will share information on Human Trafficking and how high tech is having an impact

CBSA - Mohammad Asad Chaudhry will discuss Application of Artificial Intelligence for Customs

Laura McCann from Toronto PS will talk on social media and how communications are rapidly changing

Deloitte – Tara MacPherson's talk is titled: "Protecting your Privacy: Building trust & confidence in technology use by law enforcement agencies".

Lorne Lipkus will share some of the scary things counterfeiters are doing with tech

Stacey Ann Berry from Bstellar® Group Inc will discuss AI legislative concerns