

2025 York Regional Police Hate Crime Conference:

Breaking the Barriers of Hate

One of Canada’s premier conferences on hate crime investigation

October 20 to 23, 2025
8 a.m. to 4 p.m.
each day

Blue Mountain Resort
190 Gord Canning Drive
Blue Mountains, ON
L9Y 1C2

Registration:
Early bird pricing until
July 31, 2025:
$450 per attendee

After July 31, 2025:
$500 per attendee

Registration will be closed on September 15, 2025.

Book your discounted
hotel stay below:

Hotel Booking Link

Professional development topics (Agenda to follow):

- Current trends in hate crime
- Handling protests and the community
- Relevant case studies
- Canadian west coast perspective on hate
- Updates by MAG and the Crown Attorney’s office
- Case Law Catalogue (CRRF)
- Victim Impact
- Human Rights Commission
- Hate Crime Extremism Investigative Team (HCEIT)
- Keynote Address by KATE DAVIS: The importance of Balance, Connectivity, and Resiliency through Humor

The York Regional Police Hate Crime Prevention Unit is proud to host its seventh annual national hate crime conference, an invaluable opportunity to learn and network among colleagues in hate crime investigations.

This event is open for employees of law enforcement agencies who lead or deal with hate crime investigations.

Register at:
yrp.ca/HateConference2025

For details, contact: Detective Aaron Sidenberg at 1324@yrp.ca
Detective Constable Dinnesh Kulasekaran at 1718@yrp.ca or Detective Constable Rosa Sposato at 1163@yrp.ca

