

York Regional Police Intelligence Bureau Presents:

FOREIGN INTERFERENCE CONFERENCE 2026

Transnational Repression (TNR) including
Organized Crime Activity in Canada

LAW ENFORCEMENT ONLY

TOPICS:

- Foreign Interference (FI) and Transnational Repression (TNR) in relation to China, Iran, Russia - Local and International landscape and commonly reported incidents
- A comprehensive presentation on the Bishnoi gang related investigations
- York Regional Police local FI / TNR Response Framework: (Frontline Flagging System, Intake and Review – Investigative Approach – Victim Engagement – Administration – Education & Awareness)
- The use of advanced surveillance tools such as ODIT as instruments for TNR activity – University of Toronto - The Citizen Lab

Date: Wednesday, June 3, 2026

Time: 8:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Location: Stonehaven
Banquet Hall

Address: 63 Eric T
Smith Way, Aurora

Lunch, coffee, and snacks provided

Book Now >>>

Registration: www.yrp.ca/ficonference

Cost: YRP members $50/ External $100

Contact : ficonference@yrp.ca

Also Featuring guest speakers from the Canadian Security Intelligence Service (CSIS), The RCMP Federal Policing National Security –Ottawa and RCMP Federal and Serious Organized Crime Division – British Columbia

Exclusive

Speakers

Dr. Hamed Esmailion
Award-winning Author and Activist
Victim of Transnational Repression

Laura Harth
Director, Safeguard Defenders
Exposed China's Police Stations

Noura Aljizawi
Senior Researcher at UofT The Citizen Lab
Victim of Transnational Repression

